

Subject: RE: Urgent update from PC JELFS

Ring, David, 3976 <david.ring@derbyshire.police.uk>

Fri, Jan 23, 9:

[REDACTED] Angius, Katie, 17451, Barker, Chris, 14234

I understand that Chris has written under separate cover in respect of your property.

In respect of the status of investigations, I can confirm as follows:

The following investigations remain open:

Occurrence: 23000480120

Details: This report relates to stalking and control and coercive behaviour with [REDACTED] being the perpetrator. [REDACTED] alleges that [REDACTED] has stalked her over the years and has controlled her by lying to other agencies which has had an impact upon various elements of her life including work and with her daughter.

Occurrence: 25000488633

Details: Malicious communications alleging [REDACTED] has posted on social media claiming [REDACTED] has abused her daughter.

Occurrence: 25000126526

Details: [REDACTED] alleges she was vaginally raped by [REDACTED] in 2012 in her home /bedroom that a sexual relationship began with him when she was 15 years old and he was around two years older than her.

Occurrence: 25000547505

Details: [REDACTED] alleges historical rape by [REDACTED] after seeing her medical notes that she was given the morning after pill by a Doctor.

The Police are in a position to confirm the status of all allegations between the parties to the Court, which will (obviously) be disclosable to both parties at the relevant time.

I trust that this assists.

David Ring

Solicitor-Advocate

Deputy Head of Legal Services

East Midlands Police Legal Services Unit

Ripley Office: Headquarters, Butterley Hall, Ripley, Derbyshire DE5 3RS

Tel: 0300 122 4478 (Internal 75 03976)

General Office Tel: 0300 122 5550

Email: david.ring@derbyshire.police.uk

Please Note

I may not be able to check my inbox regularly due to other commitments. If you require urgent contact please in touch with our Admin Team on 0300 122 5550.